The 1964 Memorial Book

Presented by

The Senior Class

of St. James High School

In Sincerity

The music stops. We stand quietly, as hearts soar and pride mounts. Fear and determination, ignorance and wisdom, joy and sorrow—all are encompassed in the moment. We are the past, the youth of yesterday. We are the future, the adults of tomorrow. We are the St. James High School graduates of 1964.

Graduation day—why is it important? The tears, parties, gifts, thank yous, and good-byes—these are the elements. Yet, graduation is more of a symbol than a day. It is a rededication of self, a summary of ideals, a chapter in the book of memory, the death of self-indulgence, and the dawn of life. The tears are natural—friendships are hard to sever or postpone. The parties are ecstasy personified. “We’ve made it” is the resounding cry. Gifts mean “thank you.” Thank you for what I am and what I am to be.

This volume then is dedicated as a “thank you” from the Class of '64. Thank you teachers for the patience, guidance, perseverance, and knowledge. Thank you priests for the support and good will. Thank you parents for the sacrifice and love. Thank you students for the friendship, fun, and frolic. Thank you God.

Our life is short, yet much can be accomplished. Our wills are weak, yet You will make them strong. Our minds are dull, but You will enlighten them. We are tempted, yet You suggest that we remember. We are free, but the gift is bestowed conditionally. Unbelievers are many and we are few. However, right is strength, and we are many. We are Catholics, We are young. We are Yours, and with Your grace. . . . We Will Conquer!

Student Council

Student Council, the background of the student activity, has focused its functions on the appearance and behavior of the students. This is evident at our dances, where the student guest pass has been introduced. Proper clothing for dances is being emphasized through various posters that have been "planted" around the school. It has also taken upon itself the problem of smoking. Though this organization has accomplished much, it must keep up its spirit in the future.

The Librarians, better known as heads of the "Lost and Found Department," with the help of Sister Marie Pius, tried to find books and information for the rest of the students. This crew of faithful girls and boys also kept busy collecting fines from their poor penny-less friends; shelving books; and attempting to establish silence amid the amusing gossip, harmless jokes, and helpful comments.

Model U.N.

The St. James Model U.N. Club originated in the fall of 1963 so that its members would be briefed on world issues and parliamentary procedure necessary for the spring Model U.N. Assembly at U. of D. Among its activities, the club sponsored an Internationale Dance, sent members to Human Relations meetings, and chose delegates for countries of Italy, Costa Rice, and Algeria.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

Future Teachers Club

The Future Teachers Club exists to acquaint the student with the requisites for the teaching professions and to provide experience in the field and service for the school. This year's agenda both encompassed past activities, such as catechism teaching and workshops, and inaugurated new endeavors. Picnics, parties, bowling, and "cookie feasts" emphasized the social angle. The second annual year's end program in May summarized activities, explained the organization, introduced new officers, and provided entertainment.

SODALITY

Sodality

Amidst work, worry and wonderful fun, 30 girls found a place in their lives for spiritual and charitable work in the "Sodality of Our Lady." Renewed only this year, the Sodality is constantly growing and hopes for greater advances in the future. Its message for the year--"May Mary, Our Mother, guide us always in whatever we may do."

ALTAR BOYS

Altar Boys

These are a commendable group of Catholic boys who have devoted much of their time and effort to the greater honor and glory of God. Since sixth grade, they have served Mass and assisted at devotions and other ceremonies, while having real young fun together. May they continue to serve St. James in the future.

Civics

St. James Civic Seminar Chapter leaves behind many achievements. Among them are: bi-weekly visits to Columbia Medical Center; lively discussions at weekly noon-hour meetings; and field trips which have helped build alert citizens more capable of taking an active part as future voters and leaders in America. The club, which is formally called the Detroit Inter-Student Government in Action Seminar, also boasted two officers on the General Council.

JAMESTOWN

Cheerleaders

Two years ago, six juniors made their debut as cheerleaders and they haven't kept still since. These six girls were: Cathy Wall, Kathy Nowell, JoAnne Kissick, Mary Jo Avery, Sandy Westra, and Terry Ford. Traditionally red and white clad, they have jumped, stomped, yelled, and cheered their favorite team through two basketball and one football seasons. We will always remember them and all that they have ever done for our School spirit.

Touchdown, Boys!!

St. James football season was a long and successful one. Early in the summer, a group of football players met to work out, not with a football, but just to do calisthenics. Almost everyone was trying to get in condition to play a rough and bruising game, football. The season opened and we finally got to touch the football, the linemen excluded. (For a lineman to touch the ball is a grave sin, never to be attempted.) More than 60 boys turned out, the greatest number in the history of St. James.

After the first rugged drill of running, falling, sweating and hitting the dummies, we retired to the locker room to get rid of the day's accumulation and anticipated another day of football practice. New looks appeared in the locker room; a daily steam bath was begun; more analgesic balm was used; and before the first game a sign, reading "I dreamed we beat St. Gregory's in our Maidenform bras," was erected. After our first game scare, we settled down and really began to work. As the season progressed, so did the winning streak. Then at 18 we were dethroned. Champs can't go on forever!

The season was hampered by numerous injuries from pulled muscles to broken ankles. In one week, 9 of 11 starters were hurt. We ended with a 5 and 2 record. Under the 100% coaching of John Shada, St. James has never had a losing season and always finished near the top. This was the 1963 season.

Homecoming

Queen Kathy Captivates Crowd

A colorful spectacular. Those are the words to describe the St. James Homecoming weekend. It all started Monday when the court was announced. Juniors elected for the honor were Mary Olsen and Karen Dion. Senior Court and possibilities for queen were: Tina Cuchetti, Kathy Hoard, and Mary Lou Wilson.

Another height of excitement was reached Friday at the pep rally. After a long week's anticipation, the results of the election were announced. Kathy Hoard was chosen by the student body to reign as queen. Queen Kathy's first duty as Homecoming Queen was to preside over the semi-formal dance given in her and the court's honor. This dance is sponsored by the Lettermen's Club, and was decorated by the Varsity Cheerleaders.

Sunday hit the climax of excitement as all floats and colorfully decorated cars lined up for the procession to Ferndale Stadium, with red and white dominating the scene. At half time Queen Kathy was crowned by co-captains John Motyka and Bob Ketola. She was also presented with a trophy and a dozen red roses. The court looked lovely in their pastel formals. The winning float was announced following the crowning. Congratulations, Sophomores.

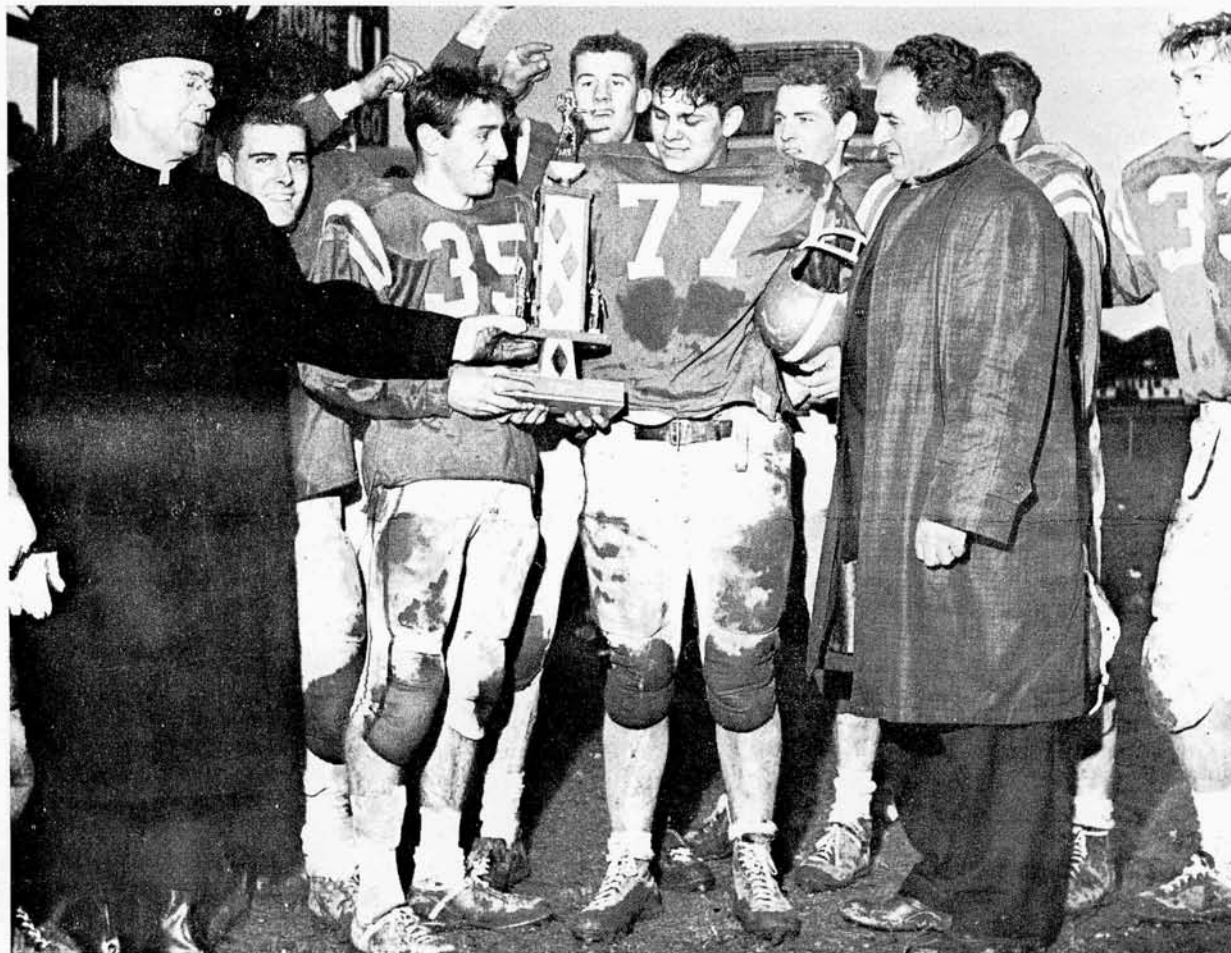

Immediately following the game, a final honor was bestowed upon the Queen. She was to be the special guest of honor at a dinner, held by the Varsity Cheerleaders, for the court, the senior team, and the team coaches.

And so ended a perfect reign for Queen Kathy.

Come true--the championship dream...

Teamwork + Coaching = Championship

Joy, satisfaction, pride, and the true athletic spirit show on the faces of Reverend George E. Ging, our beloved pastor, John Shada, Coach, Armando Cavazos and Dave LaPrairie, Co-captains of the 1962 Football Squad. The Second Division Trophy was won by these on Nov. 11 at McCabe Field, but our caption TEAMWORK plus COACHING equals CHAMPIONSHIP extends to many more than shown in this camera's eye. Our winning a title may be claimed by the team, both first and second string, the entire student body, and all of St. James parish. Not included in this picture are, Father Bernard Harrington, assistant coaches, Mr. Michael Barry and Mr. Robt. Hernbroth. The cheerleaders did much to bring victory, and last and by no means least, those "home-loving" Cheerleaders - the Sisters of St. Joseph, added a big bit to our success. Three cheers for all who won the victory! !

Ferndale St. James' hiring of John Shada November, 1962 as its football coach in 1959 was a do-or-die effort that paid off handsomely. In 1958, with a small squad of less than 20 plays, St. James finished with a dismal 1-5-1 won-lost-tied league record. But under Shada's firm hand the Ferndale school has enjoyed its finest football era.

He put St. James on the comeback road in his initial season with a 7-1 record and followed up with 6-2 and 7-2 marks. Last weekend St. James achieved its first Catholic League Second Division crown in 20 years on a perfect 9-0 record.

In recognition of the championship effort and a current string of 16 victories, Shada has been named The Detroit News' "Coach of the Year" in the Catholic League. The honor is the second accorded him in a 24-year coaching career. In 1949 when his St. Anthony squad upset U. of D., 19-13, in the Goodfellow game, Shada received another coach-of-the-year award.

Shada, a on-time ace University of Detroit guard (1935-37), will turn 47 on Nov. 30. A native of Grand Rapids, he starred in three sports at Catholic Central there. He earned a Ph. B. and master's degree in education at U. of D. He began coaching Titan freshmen under the late Gus Dorais.

Shada, who lives at 1911 Pinecrest, Ferndale, is father of four sons and four daughters.

Football games we lost and won

Heroes of the Hardwood

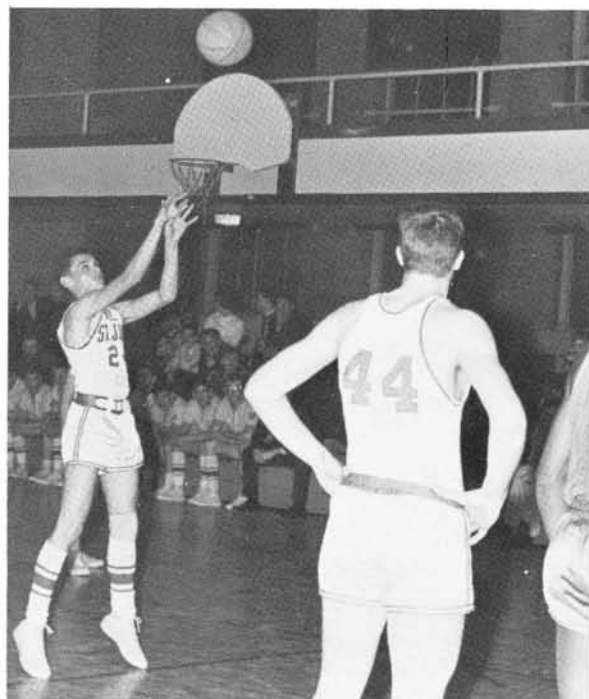

The Senior Class of 1964, along with the entire student body, would like to express their deepest thanks and gratitude to Mr. Michael Barry through whose worry, concentration, and determination the past two seasons have been so successful.

Mr. Barry was always working to keep up the spirit on the team. He was not only our coach, but also our resolution, our desire, our victories.

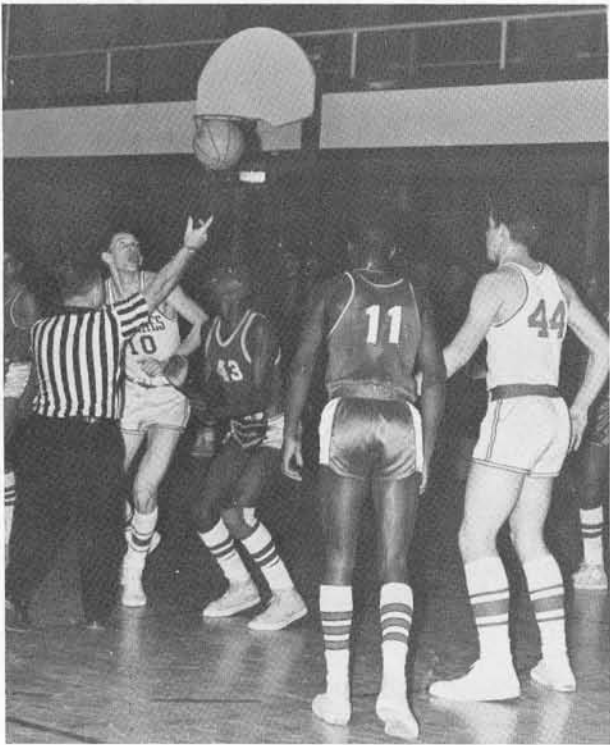

Throughout our four years in high school, we seniors won and lost many a basketball game, usually managing to come up with an "upset" game. Most teams refrained from calling us the underdog because "got our goat," and we went out and won.

There are three departing seniors who participated in basketball during their last year; they are: Chet Murawski, Joe Smith, and Bob Kohn. Chet led the team in scoring and was fifth in the Top Scorers of South Oakland County.

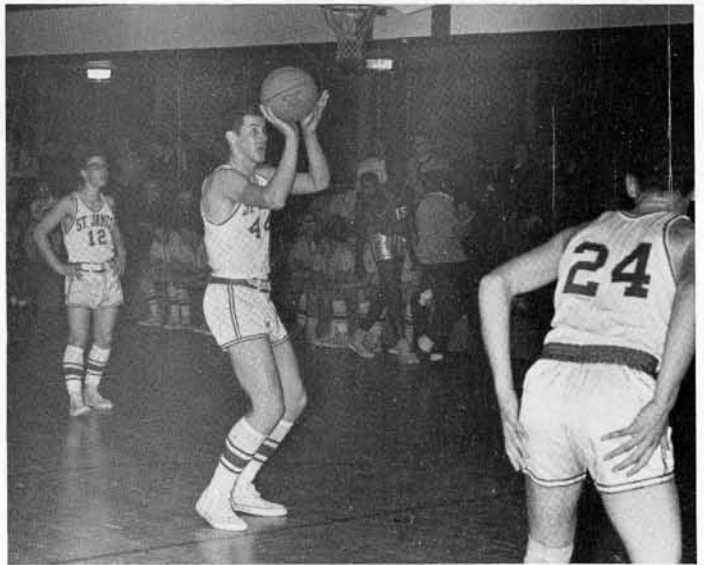

Chet puts in two more as Kohn and Zbyard look on.

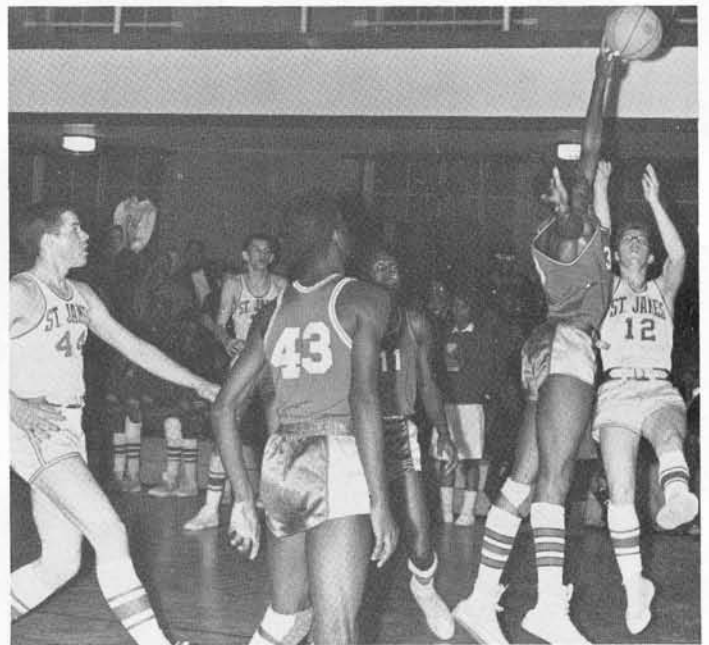

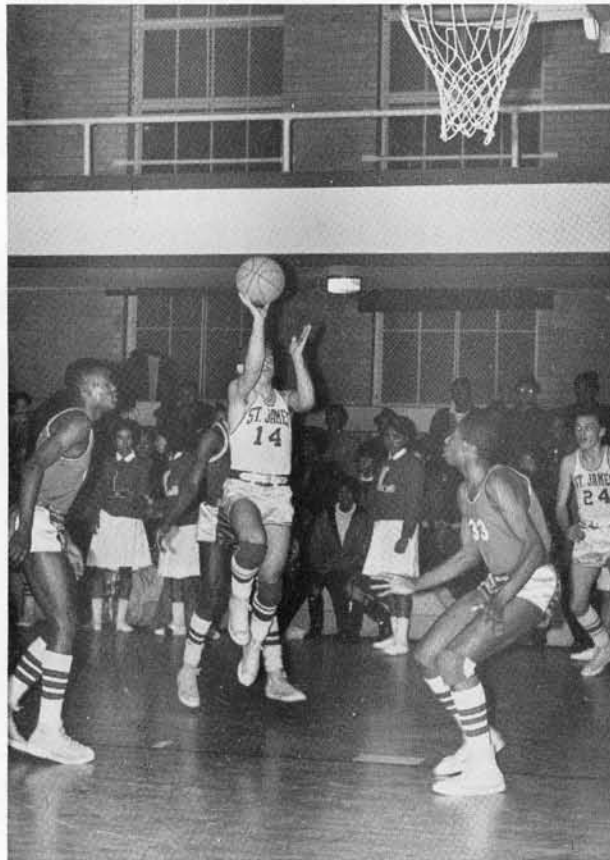

Oh, what those five guys can do!

Chet goes up and tips to Joey.

"Watch this one"

"Get away man ya bug me!"

It's keep away. Chet Murawski, Joe Smith, and Jim Samulski.

"Ah, victory again."

They're really on the beam!

"Almost but not quite!!!"

The Man Who Came To Dinner

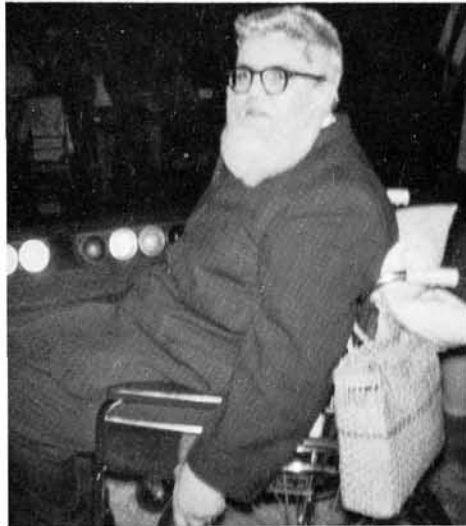

Our enterprising senior class started practicing Christmas carols a little bit early -- in fact at Easter time! But 'tis said that "practice makes perfect" although a character named Sheridan Whiteside made everything a bit more difficult. He is none other than the "Man Who Came to Dinner."

Before the strains of Christmas carols could yet be heard, Mr. Sheridan Whiteside, fondly called Sherry by those who knew him well, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Stanley in Mesalia, Ohio. "A piece of ice on the doorstep" kept this famous wit, lecturer, and critic there a bit longer than expected.

Mr. Whiteside was responsible for disrupting the Stanley household as he encouraged the daughter to elope with an anarchist and the son to take up the life of a vagabond. This, of course, is to say nothing of his blackmailing Mr. Stanley and attempting to break up the love which had blossomed between his secretary and a local newspaperman.

All ended well, however, as visiting actress, Lorraine Sheldon, was bundled up in a mummy case and carted off to Nova Scotia by Sherry's friend and Hollywood actor, Banjo!

In the hallways and on the stairs

Remember!

Girls, Girls, Girls!

Ain't love grand!

"NYAAH!"

Proud Pop!

Hands cold?

Chet, the Jet?

A Beatle and a Bug!

"My group had 33% fewer cavities!"

But in secret our hearts will cry
On the day we say good-bye to ST. JAMES HIGH.

"Hit 'em again, harden, harder!!"

Our Junior Princesses

"Hey you, Tiger!"

The morning after the night before!

It's a fad!

THIS IS YOUR LIFE, Lord Byron Crane!

Memories

January to December,
We'll have moments to remember. . .

The new year's eve we did the town;
The day we tore the goal posts down--
We will have these moments to remember.

The quiet walks, the noisy fun;
The classroom prize we almost won--
We will have these moments to remember.

Though summer turns to winter,
And the present disappears,
The laughter we were glad to share
Will echo through the years.

When other nights and other days
May find us gone our separate ways,
We will have these moments to remember.

January to December,
We'll have moments to remember. . .

It's a time for joy, a time for tears,
A time we'll treasure through the years;
We'll remember always, Graduation Day.

Though we leave in sorrow
All the joys we've known,
We can face tomorrow
Knowing we'll never walk alone.

When the ivy walls are far behind
No matter where our paths may wind,
We'll remember always, Graduation Day.

St. James High we sing to you

There is nothing we would rather do,
Come on you gals and fellows gather round
Up to heaven we will raise a rippen roaren sound.

We are from S T J A M E S,
And we will always do our very best,
We are the team that put the 'A' in fame
Always game,

St. James HIGH.

When the St. James Dales fall into line,
We will win this game another time.

For the dear old school we love so well
We will yell and yell and YELL, and YELL, and YELL.

We're going to fight, fight, fight for every score,
We're going to win this game if we never win no more.

We're going to roll St --- on the floor,
Out the door, Rah, Rah, Rahhh.

When the other team comes on the field,
They will no our team will never yield.

Although the other team has lots of pep,
When they see ours they will know that they are out of step.

And when this game goes down in history
As just another Dales victory

We will raise our voices for St. James High, St. James High.
Rah, Rah, Rahh.
